Second star for chef Julian Stowasser and the Lakeside - Guide Michelin honors the hotel-restaurant on the Alster once again

This evening the Guide Michelin has awarded a 2 nd star to the gourmet restaurant Lakeside at The Fontenay. This means that the gourmet experience on the 7th floor will once again receive one of the most important gastronomic awards in the country after 2021.

"I am touched and full of pride for my team. We are so wonderfully attuned and passionate artists. We love to prepare wonderful culinary delights for the guests and this award is a great motivation for us," Julian Stowasser is pleased to say.

In an exclusive setting, about 40 guests a day enjoy gourmet dinners at the Lakeside restaurant. They enjoy delicacies such as Breton scallop with caviar, sour cream and seaweed, quail with Périgord truffle and Jerusalem artichoke, and Époisses cheese with shallots, tamarillo and acacia seeds.

The 36-year-old Stowasser delights with bold, wild and elegant creations that are versatile and interpreted in a modern way. Each course promises an unforgettable pleasure - complemented by the perfect service of Michel Buder - the Restaurant Manager at Lakeside, Stefanie Hehn - Master Sommelier and the Chef-Pâtissier Marco D'Andrea.

"What a beautiful message. I am very proud of the team at Lakeside. We have succeeded in establishing the fine-dining restaurant in an outstanding way. We offer guests an exceptional and unforgettable culinary experience, which has already become known beyond Hamburg's borders," says Thies Sponholz, Managing Hotel Director at The Fontenay.

The Lakeside restaurant is located high above the Alster and a spectacular panoramic view over Hamburg perfectly rounds off the gourmet evening. In a modern and light-flooded ambience, guests enjoy innovative culinary creations as well as expert and cordial service. A private dining room for ten people can be reserved separately at Restaurant Lakeside.
